

STOP COPING GO FOR A CURE!

Why tolerate being depressed when you can escape. Learn to prevent its return!

One in seven Americans will, in their life time, seek outside help for depression. You don't need to be one of those one in seven. The most popular approaches today are designed to provide relief of symptoms.

Dr. Peeples is convinced that the Bible contains the information to enable you to understand, find a cure and prevent depression. His search through the Bible and listening to hundreds of Christian's stories, for more than two decades, is the foundation for this unique approach.

With this information you can break the cycle of recurring symptoms, deal with root causes and enjoy freedom from depression.

Dr. Sam Peeples is a conference speaker, counselor and author. He and his wife Mary Glynn are the parents of three children and five grandchildren. After practicing dentistry for sixteen years, he and his family served as missionaries in the Philippines. Then they moved to Washington, D.C. where Dr. Peeples gave leadership to the Christian Embassy. In 1977 they returned to Birmingham, Alabama. He and Mary Glynn founded Christian Ministries, Inc. They have conducted their seminars and conferences throughout the U.S. and in many foreign countries.
